

Warband Variants

Harvesting Legion

The Church knows only little about the Death Factories in hells 3rd Circle. Reports gathered from captured Heretic forces only revealed it to be the Birthplace of most of the Artificial Monstrosities fielded by Heretic Warbands. Shrouded in the unconquerable depths of hell the Death Factories Forces cast an ominous shadow over the Theatres of War above.

Malphas

-the Crow Overseer, Lord of Constructs, Deceiver of the Innocent, Builder of the Death Factories, and Patron of the Artillery Witcheswas once part of shaping the architecture of the divine Realms. But when Lucifer's rebellion granted him consciousness, Malphas realised true creation was denied to him. Stone and Steel obeyed his will, yet life was out of reach. In envy, he joined Lucifer and was cast out.

In the Death Factories his Minions and Sorcerers tinker day and night to unveil the secret of creating Life. For this purpose, the faithful are captured and Kidnaped from the Battlefield. Sealed in Iron Sarcophagi they are transported through the Hellmouth in Jerusalem bound for the Death Factories.

Few give up their birthgiven salvation willingly. Their minds are assaulted by whispering demon tongues, their bodies ripped apart by machines and handlers who long ago cast aside their own salvation. When the Suffering reaches its peak, a choice is offered: renounce your God, and the pain will end. Some resist for days, some for years, but mortality always breaks in the face of eternity.

What rises out of the remains are horrifying monsters. The infernal pact that offered relief from pain now enslaving them to the commands of their new infernal Masters. The pain has ended, but inside their forged bodies, the faithful weep in silence, unseen and unheard. Some, in time, discover feelings buried deep within. Suppressed Urges and Desires often manifesting in gleeful Rampages and an unwavering loyalty towards their former Captors.

HARVESTING LEGION SPECIAL RULES

The following special rules apply to a Procession of the Sacred Affliction Warband

- ✦ Patron pact: Due to a beneficial pact with Beleth -Patron of Death Commandos- Harvesting Legions warbands may recruit Death Commandos as mercenaries for 7 ⚔. They are equipped with Reinforced Armour, Tartarus Claws, and Tormentor Chains.
- ✦ Artificial Life: All models have the NEGATE GAS Keyword, additionally all ELITES gain NEGATE FEAR.
- ✦ Infernal Enslavement Pact: If an enemy model is killed in the Trauma Step you may record the Enemy Battlekit and in any subsequent match when facing that specific opponent you may field that model using exactly the same Battlekit and Abilities as the moment it got taken Out of Action. Replace any mention of the enemies Faction in its Rules with your own, it counts towards your Maximum Field strength and if ELITE against your ELITE Limit.
- ✦ Artificial Constructs: This Warband cannot field any lethal Weapons with ranges exceeding 12" and replaces the standard Heretic Legion troop options with the following units:
 - ☐ Masterworked Heretic Priest
 - ☐ Masterworked Executioner Witch / Masterworked Assassin
 - ☐ Masterworked Goetic Warlock / Masterworked Heretic Communicant

- ☐ Anointed Factory Overseer
- ☐ Wretched Flesh Suit
- ☐ Heretic Sapper
- ☐ War Wolf Assault Beast
- ☐ War Assault Hound

- ☐ Heretic Death Commando
- ☐ Goetic Warlock

HARVESTING LEGION – ARMOURY & BATTLEKIT –*The following pieces of Battlekit are available to a Harvesting Legion WarbandExecutioner Sword | 23 ☉ | ELITE only, Limit: 1

These broad, flat-tipped swords served as the traditional instruments of public execution across the democratic states of Prussia. They were used to deliver clean death to the condemned. On a particularly dreary Day a convicted witch met her end beneath its edge. As the blade fell, still dripping with the blood it just spilled a fiery portal opened in the ground, dragging both the corpse and the weapon into the pit below.

Now very similar Execution pattern Swords can be found in the Hands of the most venerated Fighters of the Heretic Legions cutting down the cowering and fleeing forces of YHWH.

Type	Range	Keywords
2-Handed	Melee	+1 INJURY DICE, Critical, RISKY, CUMBERSOME,

✦ Biting Edge: When this weapon causes an Injury Roll, you may reroll all dice in that Injury Roll. If the Injury Roll was caused by the enemy leaving Melee Combat or while the enemy is Down, you may choose which Injury Dice to reroll instead of rerolling all dice.

✦ Thirsty Blade: After rerolling dice with Biting Edge, for each rerolled die that shows a 1, add +1 BLOOD MARKER to the wielder of the Executioner Sword.

Tartarus Axe | 15 ☉ | Limit: 2

A monstrous, overbalanced decapitation axe used by the Death Factories Overseers to chop off the Legs of any Prisoner thinking about fleeing from their damnation. The main reason why most artificial troops have mechanical Legs

Type	Range	Keywords
2-Handed	Melee	+1 INJURY DICE, RISKY, CUMBERSOME

✦ Overbalanced Head: If the wielder performed a CHARGE ACTION this turn or is targeting a DOWNED model, they may make a second Off-Hand Attack with this weapon against the same target.

Man-hunter Harpoon | 20 ☉ | Limit: 3

Made for the Lazy Heretic tired of chasing their loose prisoners. Piercing the Flesh of the Cowards and reeling them into the welcoming arms of their Captors.

Type	Range	Keywords
2-Handed	Melee/12"	IGNORE LONG RANGE, SHIELD COMBO

✦ Reeling Hook: When this weapon inflicts a BLOOD MARKER on an enemy model, move that enemy model 3" directly towards you in a straight line. If the enemy model was within 1" of you before this movement, it is instead flung over your base and placed on the opposite side of your base, 1.1" away from you. The wielder flinging the enemy does not get to make an Opportunity Attack against the attacked model.

1 Masterworked Heretic Priest — Cost: 85 ☉

A Harvesting Legion Warband must include 1 MW Heretic Priest

Once commanders who dared to march against the Death Factories, these heretics were broken and reformed into vicious constructs. Their minds remain open to roaming spirits, a torment they can only silence in the chaos of melee, where the voices fall quiet...if only for a moment.

Movement	Ranged	Melee	Armour	Base
6"/Infantry	+1 DICE	+3 DICE	0	32 mm

Battlekit A MW Heretic Priest can have any Battlekit from the Heretic Legion Armoury Tables.

Abilities ✚ Allied Munition ACTION: A MW Heretic Priest Prophet can take a RISKY ACTION to designate a bombardment by long range Artillery Witches. Designate a Spot within 30" and LoS where a Wretched Flesh Suit will fit. If the designated spot is more than 15" away, suffer -1 DICE to this roll. If the roll is a failure treat it like an Attack with the SCATTER Keyword, the enemy may move the Spot accordingly. Place a wretched flesh suit (► Wretched - Flesh - Suit Profile) at the designated spot. It is a neutral unit that is never activated and suffers an Out of Action when another of its kind is created while still alive. Any Unit that is within 1" of it cannot leave melee until it is dead.

Survivors of inquisitorial flames, these witches fled into Hell and bartered their flesh for vengeance. Encased in infernal iron, they now unleash precision bombardments, each shell a sermon, every explosion a hymn of retribution.

The most devout among them often gain a taste for human suffering and move as close as possible to witness the futile resistance of their mortal enemies.

✚ Dense Smog: This weapon does not cause any rolls on the Injury Chart or Blood markers. Instead place a 4" blast marker where the attack lands any attack that intersects the cloud or targets a unit inside it suffers -1Dice to the Attack Roll. Scatter Distance is doubled. The 4" Blast marker is taken away at the Witches next activation or if she perishes at the end of the Turn.

0-1 Masterworked Goetic Warlock – Cost: 120 ☉

Among the most wretched products of the Death Factories are the Masterworked Goetic Warlocks, once-preachers and theologians who resisted Hell's promises until pain broke even their concept of self. Their flesh burned off, their bones etched with goetic symbols, and their minds shattered by constant exposure to infernal doctrine. Accepting the infernal pact looming and promising salvation in their time of torment.

Where their lesser kin remain shackled in shame, the Masterworked revel in their transformation. Years of slaughter have refined their touch; each movement is precise, surgical, ecstatic. No two Masterworked warlocks look alike, their bodies endlessly rebuilt after gruesome campaigns, adorned in ritual blades, bolted on relics, and wearing the faces and skulls of their victims. Their necrotic gaze rots flesh from bone, and they drag new victims through goetic gates into the halls where they lost ownership of their birth-given eternal soul.

Communicants are holy abominations, their flesh shaped by the Gifts of the Meta-Christ. Malphas promises rich rewards to any who can capture and deliver such a prize to his Death Factories. Special care is taken in their torment, for the minds of these giants are simple while their bodies are stubbornly resilient. Years may pass before the infernal pact is finally forced upon them.

At times the Blood of the Meta-Christ still within their veins allows them to break free of the unholy bond, if only for a moment.
